

We don't want to be bothered with unwanted phone calls. We pay for our phone service and should have the right to say that we don't want to be bothered. These people should use the mail service and let citizens decide on OWN time if a product is of interest to them. Please don't change Indiana laws - we want it.